Sample Questions

Read the passage carefully and choose the correct answer from the given alternatives.

I was late bloomer and always envied those people who stood out in high school because I didn't. I learned early on though that it's essential to set yourself apart from the group. Life is one struggle after another to succeed, particularly when you're starting out. If your biodata is sitting at the bottom of a pile of junk mail, sometimes a distinctive approach will get you noticed, especially if the competition is fierce. Once my partner Jerry and I asked the other freelance writers of a TV serial what characters they hated to write for the most. Everyone said the same thing—they disliked writing for the minor characters because they thought that writing for them wouldn't help them get other jobs. Jerry and I decided that we would write scripts for the minor characters because that's what was needed and we needed to set ourselves apart. In the first script Jerry and I wrote a school girl falls in love with a boy in her class. The producers loved the story. And with that one script, Jerry and I were no longer just another comedy-writing team.

1. Jerry and the author wrote scripts for the minor characters
  - (a) because they did not have enough work
  - (b) to earn more money
  - (c) to realize their creative potential
  - (d) to establish a different image

  - (a) people are good
  - (b) people are bad
  - (c) he was in high school
  - (d) he was a late bloomer
3. The author is of the opinion that
  - (a) it is important to do well in high school
  - (b) one should be different from others
  - (c) one should be part of the group
  - (d) one should heed to the advice of the seniors

4. According to the author
  - (a) one should follow a conservative approach in preparing one's biodata
  - (b) one should try to get noticed by being innovative
  - (c) competition in the job-market is very fierce
  - (d) one should be very meticulous in preparing one's biodata
5. The author had been
  - (a) a comedy writer
  - (b) a music director
  - (c) into advertising business
  - (d) a news reader
