PREFACE

We feel a sense of rare achievement in bringing out this book on English Grammar for the benefit of the aspirants planning to take various competitive exams. This book would not have seen the light of the day if the authors had not felt the vacuum of a comprehensive book on the subject. In fact, we have always felt that there is still a need for a compact and easy-to-understand volume of this kind.

The authors have no hesitation in asserting, though with all humility, that the subject-matter of the book has been approved by and tempered with practical experience. Its authenticity has been accepted by a wider circle of student community with sustained interest. In a nutshell, the book is a brain child of practical teaching skill that the authors themselves imbibed while teaching.

As such a unique approach has been adopted to provide exhaustive coverage to important topics of Writing Ability and Verbal Ability. It has been our endeavour to provide a large number of Practice and Revision Exercises. A reasonable care has been taken to ensure that all the latest patterns of questions on English language find room in the book. Latest Sentences, Words and Expressions put up in the recent different exams have been duly incorporated to keep the students abreast of the present trends of the questions a student is expected to answer.

The authors do not claim any originality about the subject-matter but the innovative, systematic and lucid style adopted in the presentation of the theme is exclusively original.

The authors would fervently like to express their profound gratitude to Sh YC Jain of M/s Arihant Publications for his unstinted co-operation and enthusiasm in making the publication of the book possible. We would be failing in our duty if we fail to appreciate the motivation provided by young Sh. Deepesh Jain in bringing out this book in this form. We wish him success in life.

The valuable suggestions from student brothers are welcome. They would be incorporated in the ensuing editions of this book and also in other books that are on the anvil.

PART A

Unit I (Foundation Module)

1

The Function of Tenses

A tense may be defined as that form of a verb which indicates the time and the state of an action or event. In this manner, a verb may refer to

(A) Time of an Action (Tense)

For example

- (i) He goes to school. (Present time of an action)
- (ii) He went to school. (Past time of an action)
- (iii) He will go to school. (Future time of an action)

From the above sentences, it will be clear to the students that there are three main tenses.

1. The Present tense
2. The Past tense
3. The Future tense

(B) State of an Action (Function of Tenses)

For example

- (i) I write letters regularly. (Present tense, Habitual function)
- (ii) I am writing a letter. (Present Continuous tense, Progressive function)
- (iii) I have just written a letter. (Present Perfect tense, Preceding function)
- (iv) I have been writing a letter for some time. (Present Perfect Continuous tense, Time expression)

(C) Time Frame of a Tense

We have three time frames and in order to get a complete structure of tenses, we should briefly know each one of them. These are as follows

- (i) Point of time is that time which denotes a specific/proper time. e.g., in 1947, on Monday, etc.
- (ii) Period of time is that time which denotes a specific duration of time. e.g., from 1930 to 1950, from Monday to Saturday, etc.
- (iii) Expression of time denotes the combination of both a point and a period of time. e.g., winter 1947, summer 1950, etc.

The Tenses and their Functions

The Present Indefinite Tense

—Habitual Action

(A) This tense is generally used to denote ‘habit, custom, practice, repeated action, permanent activity, general truth’, etc.

These ideas are expressed by the adverbs of frequency such as ‘often, seldom, usually, never, occasionally, sometimes, normally, generally, always, frequently, rarely, daily’, etc.

For example

- (i) The old lady goes for a walk in the morning daily.
 - (ii) Pearl usually believes everybody.
 - (iii) Arnav often gets late for lunch.
 - (iv) Suhani always comes in time.
 - (v) Shaurya seldom gets up late.
- (B) This tense is also used to make a statement in the present showing permanent nature and activity of the subject and eternal principles.

For example

- (i) I know him well.
- (ii) He teaches in St. Xavier College.
- (iii) The cow gives milk.
- (iv) Rivers freeze at high altitude.
- (v) Water boils at 100°C.
- (vi) Plants prepare their own food.

Additional Uses of Present Indefinite Tense

Historical Present

- (i) Now, Netaji enters and addresses the Indian soldiers.
- (ii) Now, Arjun shoots arrows at Bhishma.

The Present Continuous Tense—Progressive Action

(A) This tense is normally used for an action in progress, that is temporary in nature (not for a permanent activity), in the present at the time of speaking.

For example

- (i) She is not working. She is swimming in the river.
- (ii) It is raining outside.

(B) It also expresses future action or a definite arrangement in the near future.

For example

- (i) I am going to the cinema tomorrow.
- (ii) She is coming next week.

Additional Uses of Present Continuous Tense

(C) Continuous tense with 'always' may express an idea which is not to the liking of the speaker.

For example

- (i) She is always teaching her children.
- (ii) He is always praising his friends.

(D) There are some of the verbs which sometime don't admit of progressive action. Such verbs are called Non-progressive verbs (Stative verbs).

These include

- (i) Verbs of Perception : See, taste, smell, hear, prefer, please.
- (ii) Verbs of Thinking Process : Think, know, mean, mind.
- (iii) Verbs Showing Possession : Own, have, belong, comprise, possess, contain.
- (iv) Verbs Expressing Feelings or State of Mind : Believe, like, love, want, wish, desire, hate.
